What you don't know CAN hurt you!!!

Tuesday, March 23, 2010 • Price: $139 per logged-on computer

TIME: 3:00 PM EDT; 2:00 PM Central Time

Did you know that you can enter into contracts by email and they are binding? There are now enough legal cases on the books to make interpretation of the laws written more accurate. Find out what these mean to you! Below are some of the items that will be covered.

Your speaker, James Vann of Vann and Sheridan Attorneys LLP, has spent years working in Construction Law and Creditors Rights. His clients range from individuals and privately held family and/or closely held businesses to corporations with national distribution and business associations.

Areas that will be covered:

- Can entering into contracts by email or internet be binding?
- Can email impact your purchases and/or sales? If so, how?
- Can an employee enter into a contract simply by email and commit the company?
- How to protect yourself with contracting with email and internet use
- Then... What requirements do we have regarding protecting information electronically stored?
- Are we liable for possible identity theft?
- How to protect your business from potential liability

Prior to the webinar, you'll be contacted by them with the webinar phone number and password, as well as instructions for logging onto the website to view the webinar live. The program will last approximately 45 minutes with an additional 15 minutes for questions.
